“ I just recently learned of Mary Jo's passing, as we lost touch years ago. I also worked with her at 35th Street School and have many fond memories of our outings and parties. We used to have ethnic themed parties (that's Mary Jo's under the mafia wife's funeral veil!) and regular outings with our tight-knit staff. This collage still proudly sits in my house some 25 years later. Until we meet again Mary Jo, thanks for the memories.

We were friends back in high school. Thought about her today while driving through her old neighborhood in Glendale. Sweet person back then. It appears she remained so.

A beautiful lady. Met her on my daughters first day of kindergarten 21 years ago. We became friends all the years my kids were at Alcott, and continued for many's years later.

Her loving guidance and teaching skills only encouraged Kelsey to go into teaching.

Another angel in heaven.
