“ My memories of Mike go back to knowing him through my children as a classmate and brother of Dave, who is now my son-in-law. After his parents were gone, we wanted him to feel like part of our family. In recent years, it's been harder for us keep up. But now that he's in eternity, he joins all those I pray for each day that have gone before me.

Eternal rest grant onto him, O Lord, and may the Perpetual Light shine upon him !

“ Michael was (is) a genuinely gentle man. He spent many holidays with my family and I always enjoyed playing cards and drinking cocoa with him every time! He had a great laugh and his face lit up when he connected with others. Many great memories with him at many great events! God Bless Michael forever and May he Rest In Peace and May his loving family be comforted by the ingenuity of God's plan for this part of Mike's Journey. Pray for us Michael and we will pray for you !
