

Mildred M. Bialobrzkeski

April 24, 2020

(nee Coubal) Born to Eternal Life on April 24, 2020 and reunited with her beloved husband Edwin at the age of 91 years after suffering a recent stroke. Preceded in death by her first husband John V. Perkovich. Loving mother of Robert "Bob" and John (Gerilyn) Perkovich. Dearest grandma of Joseph (Kimberly) Perkovich, Tracie Perkovich, Aaron (Dawn) and John (Ingrid) Perkovich. Great-grandma of Damon, Kirsten, Lauren, Noah, Nadia, Sonia and Simon. Great-great grandma of Merix, Audrey and Vallen. Special aunt of Carole and other nieces and nephews. Further survived by other relatives and many friends. Millie will be missed immensely as a caring, loving, courageous, strong, supportive and generous role model for Bob and John and all her grandchildren. She was so influential and impactful to everyone in her family. We miss you so much Ma and Grandma!

“ I was Millie`s former Mailman for 21 years. I`ve delivered to Thousands of people over the decades, but a handful will always stand out.
Millie was one of them.

“ Our dearest Mom, we will miss you to the moon and back. Will miss your smile, laughter and kindness. We have so many great memories, cabin at the lake, fishing, oh how I remember how much you liked to fish. Your love for dogs, the potato dumplings and the Sunday get-together with Pa, Bob and Joe, Aaron, Tracie and John Jr. Your vegetable garden and all the wonderful things we shared..
Mom, we love you so much and will always be with us.
