“ Grandma, you were truly one of a kind. I have never met a person so giving, so loving, so honest (even when we didn't want to hear it) with such a love for God and such a sense of humor. You always wanted us to look out for one another and love each other. You taught me how to be a strong and humble woman. I will always cherish the memories and the time we had together. You were my 2nd mom and my everything. It is going to be extremely difficult not seeing you and having you around but I know I carry you in my heart and I know you are still with all of us as our angel now. You are now with Aunt Shirley, Uncle Joe and Great-grandma Pearl and for that I am grateful.

To my wonderful Mom and grandma Im so very thankful for having you as my mom, and my very best friend you were and are my everything I Lived and breathed for you and I want to thank you for helping me rase my grandson and your great grandson Kenny he Loves you so very much and we both miss you so bad it breaks our heart's apart but in time maybe mom ? You and God can put our heart's togerher again but I know there will always be a piece missing in both of our heart's because you were always the one who made it so complete. So mom and great grandma untill the day we meet you again please hold on to our piece of our missing heart's so when we both are reunited once again you will be the special one to mend our heart's once again. Love always Your Daughter Karen and your Great Grandson Kenny.

“ Like Kathy, I have so many memories of visiting when we were young. I especially remember when Dr. King was assassinated in the 60's and Auntie Nancy's neighborhood was in the thick of violence and unrest. My mom was so worried about her safety. My dad put Mac, our german shepherd, in the family station wagon, and despite barricades, bottles thrown at his car, and crowds blocking streets--he made his way to bring Auntie Nancy and our loved cousins to our house for 2 weeks. Can you imagine 8 people in a small home with one bathroom? We thought it was a wonderful family vacation spending time with Terry, Karen and Billy.

I treasure my last visit to see Auntie Nancy--although it was over a year ago. Always first to say, "can I get you something to eat honey". Her spiritual belief was contagious. She was a true giver. Although this is a difficult time for the family, I have never felt more comfort in knowing that Auntie Nancy is surrounded in love and I will celebrate her with a cup of Folger's coffee and a game of darts!

“ Always our "Auntie" Nancy, I cherish the memories, especially all the visits to your house when we were young spending time with you and our cousins. We were always treated with your wonderful home cooking and a banana bread like no other (I'm pretty sure I asked my parents on the way, "do you think Auntie Nancy made banana bread??? And you always did.) Your eyes and words always reflected your heart and soul, and we always felt the love and care, as if you were another Mom. There was no one more like her. I treasure, too, the chance to spend time with you in late July. Knowing how it feels, I will pray for the family to heal and have peace. You will continue to feel her love your whole lives. But I hope you find solace, as I do, knowing she is with Mom and Uncle Joe again.
