

Oscar A. Abanto Guevara

June 18, 2024

Oscar Alfredo Abanto Guevara, 74, passed away on June 18, 2024, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Born in April of 1950, in Lima, Peru, Oscar was known for his vibrant personality and generous spirit, embodying the life of the party wherever he went. He brought joy and laughter to all who knew him, and his creative and hardworking nature was evident in both his professional and personal life.

For many years, Oscar dedicated himself as a skilled body man, where his great talent with his hands shone through. His hobbies included watching movies, listening to music, detailing his car, and engaging in various house projects, which kept him active and fulfilled.

Oscar is survived by his loving wife, Avelina; his children, Maribel, Luis, Evelyn, and Miluska; and his cherished grandchildren, Jennifer, Cailin, Ernesto, Jose, Alyssa, Matthew, Olivia, Eliana, Alexander, and Nadia. He also leaves behind his siblings, Marino, Maria, Orfelinda, Fernando, Jose, Elisa, Arturo, and Armando. Oscar was preceded in death by his mother, Cedina Guevara; father, Ignacio Abanto Sanchez; brother, Carlos Abanto Guevara and granddaughter, Marilyn.

Oscar's memory of him will forever be cherished by those he touched with his loving and caring nature.
