Surprised to learn that Pat had passed away. He had worked together for 15 years in the Corporate Security Division of the Briggs & Stratton, and kept in contact for the past couple of decades. Pat was a good person, very reliable employee and very proud of his brother Mike, there time servicing as a US Marines. I'm sure knowing that his internment was at Arlington National Cemetery with honors was a very proud moment. In life, Pat often shared his positive times he spent with his wife, his connect with her parents and fatherly love of his daughter Katlin. He often and happily shared stories of his little angel growing up. Her sucesses in elementary school, high school, college and her becoming an established professional on television in the Media Industry. So sorry for your loss. Mike Simmons
