“ I'm so sorry to hear about this. He was such a wonderful man. I really enjoyed our Saturday morning breakfasts for many years. I'm glad that I was able to speak with him last month. I was hoping to get another chance to see him as well. Just know that Phil touched so very many lives and I believe that he only made them better. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ Our condolences to you Dave and the rest of your family. Your dad was one of my favorite customers back when I worked at the bank. I will never forget his gift of conversation and always making my day!

“ I worked with Phil for several years. We both were members of the Milwaukee Homeless Veterans Services Board. He was a kind, involved partner who supported our mission to serve underserved veterans. I always laughed when his cell phone would ring because the ring tone was ducks quacking. He got a chuckle out of that, too. We will miss his sincere input and support.

“ This is a sad time. Your father and my best friend passed away .i know as well as you he will be missed dearly. I spent many hours sitting on the deck talking. We told stories about our family and when where younger. About times in the army and jobs we had.we got to know each other pretty good. I know we both enjoyed the time together.
