“ I will always keep in my heart our friendship & the many memories we shared. I was a teen when I met you, being a Mexican American I had trouble at first communicating with you. Your broken English would tickle me & it mad you mad. But eventually we became very close. I have always consider you my brother in law even through the divorce. You have always respected me & I had the same respect for you. We live & then we die but your memory will always be alive for me. Don't worry about your children bc we have always looked out for them. To my nieces & nephew you Now have a Guardian Angel right by your side! Love you guys always.

“ He was a rock for all of us, but I know he was even more than that for you all. His influence is obvious in the way you all parent and the way you live your lives. You are your father's legacy, and he was so proud all his children. I have so many memories but the most special ones are of his strength and love for the entire family. Rest in heaven brother in law. Thank you for all your said and did to make my life a little easier while far away from my parents. You, Rosie and your kids were my surrogate family and will forever be grateful to you all. LOVE ALWAYS: Ann Marie Guerrero aka: Deedee
