“ Sad to hear of the passing of Ralph. Growing up in Milwaukee, I would see Ralph at Lincoln State Bank where my parents were customers. As I grew older, Ralph coached our Cleveland Park softball team. We spent many summer days/nights playing ball with Ralph on the bench. At times, he would take some of the team to Leon's Custard. He also took us to St. Louis to watch the Brewers take on the Cardinals. We lost touch as I got older, but thought of him often. A great guy. Thank you for the great childhood memories, Ralph. You were one-of-a-kind.
