“ I am so sad at the loss of my Uncle Ray. Many of my outdoor firsts, sleeping in the woods, fishing, and shooting a 22, happened with my dad and Ray. My fondest memory was the day Ray stepped in for my dad after a last minute change in dad’s work schedule. I had been looking forward to a fishing contest at Jackson park and dad couldn’t go. Uncle Ray to the rescue! He showed me where to cast and how to watch for a bite. But at 11:45, with 15 minutes before the end, I was ready to give up. “Throw it in one more time” he said with that head-tilted smile that was Ray.

When the rod started to move I almost shit my pants. Ray talked me through getting the fish landed and unhooked. Five minutes before 12; my long haired skinny little self was running full speed squeezing the hell of the most beautiful black and orange goldfish God had ever created. First place in my age group and 3rd overall.

I wish I could be at the service, but not feeling well, and don’t want get anyone sick. Please know that tears I shed are ones of happiness to be in our family.
