

Rita J. Krass

November 25, 2022

Rita May Julia Krass (nee Kroll), age 89, loving wife (“Reet”) of the late John, was surrounded by her children and family as she walked into the arms of Jesus on November 25, 2022.

Devoted, loving mother of Steve, Paul (late Judy) (Julie), Cindy Potter, Christie (late Hugh) (Craig) Wagner, Beth (Myron) Strong, Julie (late Loyal) Grinker.

Special great-grandmother, “Gigi” to Isabela, Angel, Ava, Teagan, Mia, Casen, Mason, Aubrey, Jackson, Laney and Ezra.

Dear sister of the late Christine (Leo) Saskowski and the late Terry (Joseph) Repetti who was her precious “roomie”, puzzle-partner, recipe-swapper, card playing companion (both were Quiddler Queens and “Golfers” through their 80s and 90s).

Loving “Auntie Rita” to her nieces and nephews.

Her generous heart supported her Church and many charities through the years. In lieu of flowers, please consider “paying it forward” to the charity of your choice (or St. Alphonsus Parish) in Rita’s memory.

Rita lived a life of devotion to her faith, family and friends. Her life was one of kindness which was demonstrated through her loving, serving heart and actions. She lived a life of faith and trust in her Savior Jesus Christ. She is now in heaven to eternally worship and praise the God she loved and served throughout her long life.

"Goodbye, with much love to our Mom, Grandma, Gigi, Aunt, and Friend."

“ My mom, Florence Rice was a longtime, long-ago friend of Rita’s. When I was a kid, it was great fun making Christmas cookies with my mom @ Rita’s house every year. They made delicious toffee bars. I remember when Julie was born and liking her name because Julianne was almost my name! My mom died in 1986 but I often thought of Rita over the years. And every time when I drove past the Krass house on 98th & Lincoln. I’m happy to know that she had a long life and a loving family with lots of grandkids and great-grandchildren! My sincere condolences to all who loved Rita-- especially Steve, Paul, Cindy, Christie, Beth & Julie. Fondly, Jackie Rice
