“ I first met Tucker on a job back in 1997. I asked him the story behind his nickname. He told me he grew up in an orphanage and the nuns were always on his case to tuck in his shirt, thus the nickname "Tucker". A real stand up guy, and I felt privileged to have known him and to have worked along side him. Marty K. Montello, WI

Tucker was my neighbor for 13 years in St. Francis, WI. He loved to joke around about things. Very friendly and creative guy. He was proud to have served in the U.S. Navy. He told me that is when he learned to swim like a rock ("right to the bottom ").
