I'll never forget the first time I met 'Bob' at Ameritech; so tall and that deep voice of his was terribly intimidating; He was describing his daughter Amy to me since we were soon going to be working together... seems his interpretations may have been off since we were both the complete opposite of what he described. Amy and I are able to laugh about it till this day. Glad I was lucky enough to see behind that rough exterior was a teddy bear of a man. Loved his sense of humor and his undying love for his daughters and grandchildren. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with his beautiful family.
