“ We are thinking and praying for you all. Tim couldn't get off work to fly home. The rest of us are ill. Bob has been a special person in all of lives. Another partner for shepshead now. He was a great man. Kind, loyal and compassionate. We will miss him. We will be donating to St Roman's. Love to all, the Paschkewitz family.

“ Bob was a GOOD GUY he loved his family and friends. He cared for people, he built a neighborhood for his Mother, sisters, aunts, and mother-in-law. To have them close for him to watch over Bob has done something for those he leaves behind...fixed it, built it, gave rides, gave advice, kept in touch, played cards, told jokes, even had a treat handy for your dog.

Bob and Lucy leave us with memories of all the years of a life well lived and loved.

You are missed.

God Bless

“ Not so long ago when we spent time together over lunch, Bob felt comfortable sharing his thoughts with me. He told me "I have no regrets about my life. I had a good life with Lucy and I spent quality time with my kids." He told me about the times the kids went to the jobs with him.. Annie was so young and the ladies thought she was so cute, would take care of her, and spoil her. He enjoyed spending time with Richard, going on excursions to car swap meets, road trips, or just going out to lunch. They knew all the best places in the city. He had the opportunity to travel with his family and visit 49 of the 50 United States. He was truly blessed with a wonderful life.

He was a special friend and I will miss him.

“ Bob and Lucy many times came to the clubs when I was playing in a band. He loved the music even though he didn't particularly care to dance. His favorite song was "Tiny Bubbles" which we always played for him when he was there. Guess what, he would dance to that song!!!! This band did also play at their wedding.

“ Bob was at times an instigator, looking to start a little trouble, which seemed to fit in with his sense of humor. Most times were within our friends' circle and when we had small children. Two examples: We had just planted flowers in a pot and my son being very young, he told him they were weeds and your dad would be happy if you pulled them out and he did and no more flowers!!! The other time during a dinner together, we were all eating spaghetti, Bob asked our pretoddler son, "where is your hair" and of course he was very messy at best and reached for his head and red sauce and noodles all over.

“ Bob was a man of faith, family, and friends. He was a generous person with his time and talents being a drywaller, carpenter, car mechanic, and craftsman. He was always willing to help anyone with their project.

“ I remember a sunny warm day Bob was out cruising the South Side in his blue Jeep. He pulled up in the driveway at our house to show it off. The ear- to- ear smile and pride he had was obvious he was enjoying the ride. I'll never forget his smile.
