“ My heart and condolences go out to your family. Robert...where do I begin? The first time we met, I was very intimidated. You never sugar-coated anything, had your opinions, and were not afraid to share them. We had different viewpoints on many topics. Because of this, I am thankful to have met you. With every visit, I learned a little more insight into the life you lived and your time in Vietnam. I gained a deep respect and understanding for the circumstances in which you went through. You taught me a valuable lesson that has helped me grow as a person and in my business, which is not to always take things at face value. Dig deeper and try to understand where they are coming from. You always made sure to feed me when I visited. Actually, you were quite adamant about sending me with snacks, even if I had just had lunch. I cherish the friendship we built over the years. My favorite was your double goodbyes. I can still hear you say "bye bye, bye bye" when we hung up, or you left a message.

Eugenia, he was so in love with you. You could tell by the way he looked at you, the way he talked about you, and the prized photos he displayed that he took of you. Sometimes he could be a little rough around the edges, but you had that fire that made him melt. It always warmed my heart to see the love you two shared. My deepest sympathies.

With love,
Miranda

“ My Dearest Robert - I wish you were still here so I could tell you how much I love you. My life without you is now nothing. I miss when you called me Sweetie, and I miss when you would be heading to the store and would give me a kiss and tell me to be careful. I would also tell you to be careful with a kiss on your cheek. I remember when you gave me the pretty necklace with a heart on it, you said "Eugenia, you stole my heart." Well, Robert, you stole my heart too, and it is yours forever.

Rest peacefully, my Love. Your Eugenia

“ Robert was the love of my mother’s life. He was her everything from sundown to sunset. Eugenia and Robert were two peas in a pod and shared a lovely home and a passion for photography and nature walks pre-COVID. He was an incredibly talented micro photographer. He gifted me 4 photos which I will treasure forever. He could hold your interest for hours m. He was an amazing story teller, a very intelligent man with little patience for ignorance and I say that with a smile because we could get into some spats but then I’d tell him he was so handsome and he’d laugh and call me goofy. I miss him. I miss him telling me to take my shoes off before stepping into their home. I wish you were still here Robert, with mom. You will never be forgotten and you will always be loved by us. Thank you for being the best thing that ever happened to our mother. I will always cherish you for that. You were a very special man, loved and appreciated more than you knew. Rest In Peace American Pride.
