

Roberto Lopez Sr.

March 1, 2021

My dad was loved by many and he truly loved his family, friends and country. He loved to listen to music, to dance and loved to party. He was a social butterfly that loved to be around people since it gave him energy to light up any room he was in. My dad loved baseball and ever since he came to America in the early 80's he's been a New York Yankees fan and from the Dominican Republic he loved his Tigres del Licey baseball team.

He loved to build things around the house and always took pride in all of his works, he used to build piggy banks all the time for the kids in the family. He enjoyed traveling, definitely enjoyed going on a road trip whether it was a long or short one; he enjoyed playing dominos, playing cards, and playing pool. Despite all of his health problems he never once complained about them, he was very adamant about enjoying his time with people doing the things he loved. To everyone who knew him they knew him as that funny husband, dad, brother, uncle, etc., he was always joking about everything and made everyone laugh.
