“ Dear Aunt Rosemary, I'm so grateful to have known her, and had her for an Aunt. Many wonderful childhood memories of her endless kindness, her smile, her wit. I remember her spending a day sewing Barbie Doll clothes for us, baking delicious cookies, and rice krispie treat ice cream sandwiches. When I had an operation in first grade, she came to the hospital and brought me a beautiful doll that stood on a heart stand.. When I was 18, and very sick in the hospital she brought me a crewel work "Serenity Prayer" to embroider. How many dozens of delicious dinner rolls did she bake for our whole, large Snopek family.? She filled so many hearts with her kindness and her smile. To top it all off she filled the air with the beautiful music from her accordion.! A true Gift to this world. Rest in Peace now, Aunt Rosemary.. Love Niece, Allison Snopek Barta .
