“ I can't believe I'll never hear sharon say "hi honey" or "hiya solider" and salute my son again . She was the best neighbor I've ever had . My heart is broken that such a wonderful person was taken too soon. She would have my son over for coffee by the time he was 6 she got Him hooked on bottles of Starbucks and he got her hooked on the song " I can make your hands clap". She got such a kick of watching "the kids" my 3 dogs play in the yard she just loved it. Gosh we are all going to miss her so much .

As I read your first sentence, in my head- I immediately recalled her jubilant greeting "Hiya Honey" -
What a lovely memory 💕

Sharon was a dear person and a special part of our family. She had an easy laugh and a big hug, and a real concern about anyone she loved or befriended. I'll always remember the 'good old days' when the family would gather at Uncle Swede's and we would all enjoy being together, retelling the family stories.

Sharon was the most wonderful women. She had such a laugh and could make anyone laugh. I will miss our Thursday phone call and our shopping sprees. The dog stories we would tell each other and how when she saw a dog in a store she would always say "Hi I'm Auntie Sharon". Or yell in the store "Pork Chop where are you?". I have so many memories and will keep these memories with me forever and near my heart. You were like my 2nd mom. I will miss you deeply.
