

Sophie L. Jablonski

December 25, 2020

Sophie L. Jablonski (nee Lukomski) of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, passed away on Christmas Day, 2020 at the age of 99.

In addition to her parents, Sophie was preceded in death by her husband, Thaddeus A. Jablonski, and one son. Sophie is dearly missed by her 6 remaining children and spouses, 10 grandchildren and spouses and 18 great grandchildren; family was everything to her.

Prior to World War II, Sophie was a governess for a military family in the Carolinas. In 1942, she worked at the Allis-Chalmers Supercharger plant. She was honored to be chosen as runner-up for Wisconsin's "Miss Victory" of America.

Mom and Dad loved to travel. They enjoyed their many vacations to her brother's 'Up North' cabin and visits to the great Southwest.

Finally, our family would like to send a heartfelt thank you to the phenomenal caregivers at Maria Linden Senior Community and St. Camillus Hospice.

The family will receive relatives and friends for a Memorial Gathering Friday, April 30 from 10:30 to 11:00 AM at ST. ROMAN CHURCH (1810 W. Bolivar Ave. Milwaukee) followed by a Memorial Mass of Christian Burial at 11:00 AM.

“ Mom I love you and miss you every day. I'll always be grateful for you teaching me about Jesus and laying that strong Christian foundation in my heart. I was your baby girl. You used to sing "How much is that doggy in the window" to me while rocking me in the kitchen. You bought me special Christmas coloring books and beautiful Easter outfits. (Could've done without the perms though). You always worked so hard to make our house a home and showed your love in so many ways. You were the best mom ever. Thank you for all you did for me and for your love. I love you. Patsy
