“ I will always remember Tammy's smile and laughter during the few times I was invited to Schluectermann gatherings. I wish there had been more invites. She was a true pleasure to be around. Tammy asked me to help plan her parents 50th wedding anniversary four years ago. I was thrilled to be asked.
My condolences to her three children and their significant others, her father and her two brothers. I am glad she suffers no more.

“ Tammy my childhood friend, rest in peace & know you are loved and blessed by many. We had a lot of great memories playing frogger and of course pacman & also making plaques for our family in your basement with the help of your father and mother. God bless your family at this sad time and know we are here for all of you.❤️
