“ Auntie Terry lived a long and beautiful life. She has touched so many peoples lives and left great memories for us. I am sad that I will not be able to see or hear her again in this life time, but will find comfort in believing that she is in heaven with all our loved ones who left us already. Some of the best memories for me is when we would be by her house watching the Fourth of July parades and going back to the end to get extra ice cream. Love you bunches Auntie Terry and we will see each other again. Until then , enjoy your new life in Heaven.

Those parades, silly as they were, are one of my favorite childhood memories also. Then we would go to your house for your Dad, my Uncle Leo's birthday. As a kid I looked forward to that day every year.
