

Thomas M. Janos

July 3, 2020

Janos, Thomas M. "Tom"

Born to Eternal Life July 3, 2020 at the age of 73 years in Milwaukee, WI. Preceded in death by his beloved wife, Susan (nee Lehrke). Survived by his loving daughter Sarah; brothers William (Donna) and Jack; sister Jeannie; brother-in-law Jeff (Kris) and Sonny; and countless loved ones, both relatives and friends. Tom was also preceded in death by his brother Robert and sister Julie Ann.

Tom had an appreciation for the outdoors, especially admiring them from his boat while out on his day fishing trips. He enjoyed time with family and friends throughout the years, catching up at BBQ's, Packer parties, 4th of July festivities, birthdays and other celebrations. His smile and laughter were infectious and his sarcastic witty humor will be missed by all who knew him.

"If I fished only to capture fish, my fishing trips would have ended long ago," - Zane Grey Visitation Friday, July 24 from 10:30 AM to 12:00 Noon at the FUNERAL HOME followed by a Funeral Service at 12:00 Noon. Entombment St. Adalbert Cemetery.

Rozga Funeral & Cremation Services

Rozga-Walloch Chapel

4309 South 20th Street

Milwaukee, WI 53221

Cemetery Details

St. Adalbert Cemetery

3801 S. 6th Street
Milwaukee, WI 53221

Previous Events

Visitation

JUL 24. 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM (CT)

Rozga Funeral & Cremation Services - Rozga-Walloch Chapel
4309 South 20th Street
Milwaukee, WI 53221
(414) 281-7145
<https://www.rozgafuneral.com/>

Funeral Service

JUL 24. 12:00 PM (CT)

Rozga Funeral & Cremation Services - Rozga-Walloch Chapel
4309 South 20th Street
Milwaukee, WI 53221
(414) 281-7145
<https://www.rozgafuneral.com/>

Entombment

JUL 24. 1:00 PM (CT)

St. Adalbert Cemetery
3801 S. 6th Street
Milwaukee, WI 53221

Tribute Wall

“ Blue Caribbean Bouquet was purchased for the family of Thomas M. Janos.

July 15, 2020 at 10:27 AM

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Robert Baron - July 11, 2020 at 02:05 PM

“ *Sarah,
My heart breaks for you. You have always been our other sister... whether it was because of the baby powder fights, or puddle/ toilet water, wet carnival dice, you have solidified a place in our hearts and family.
It's incredible, the light that both of your parents have. Genuine hearts, that accepted little sisters, and gave them kiddie cocktails at the downstairs bar.
I didn't know them very well, but I do remember they were always smiling, laughing. And they love you, more than words could ever express.
My deepest condolences for your loss.*

Jacki - July 09, 2020 at 07:41 AM

HL

Hi Sarah,

I am so sorry to hear about your dad. I remember him (and your mom) as fun-loving people with a zest for life. I know that they would want you to continue in the same way. It may be hard right now and probably always will be to an extent, but I know that you take after them in your silliness :)

I could always tell when you guys had been in my room, even if you thought you were being slick! I could smell Soft Jasmine ;)

If you ever need anything, we are your extended family and you always have a "home" with us. Love ya 💕

Heather

Heather Littlefield - July 17, 2020 at 10:14 PM

 Natalie Schumaker

“ Sarah-

You already know.

(takes off silver hoops)

I love you.

-Natalie xo

Natalie Schumaker - July 07, 2020 at 06:10 PM

 Natalie
Schumaker

“ Tom,

There are so many great things to be said about you. I am so sorry for you to have left this world but I am positive you are overjoyed to be reunited with Sue, your true love. You were both always my other parents, my family away from home and will always hold a huge place in my heart that could never be replaced. Your relationship and your love for each other was something I admired from a young girl and I adored watching you together always. My childhood and some of my best memories are with you, Sue and Sarah whether it be camping, in the Dells, the basement, a church festival, the garage or floating on a lake waiting for the big one to bite. You laughed off our irritating antics and rolled your eyes more than once (with a smile) at two annoying teenage girls but you never made us feel less than. The way you cracked a sarcastic joke, chuckled, said "get out of here", told the same "dad" jokes, snapped your fingers, did a little dance and tried to be a little embarrassing whenever you could made me love and appreciate you a whole lot. Thank you for opening your heart and your home so many years ago.

When we spoke just over a month ago, one of the last things you said to me is to never give up on Sarah, and I promised you that I never will. I don't know if that was your way of saying goodbye but I wish I had known...I thought I had time to come see you. Sarah is heartbroken by your loss and has never recovered from the loss of our dear Sue. I ask for your guidance and healing love to cover her and protect her and to give her strength when she needs it most. She has been one of the greatest gifts of my life, so much of who I am, influencing so much of who I was to become from music, new things, weirdness, growing up together, into ourselves. She has helped me fight for myself more than once and I will always do the same for her.

I'm sad that I will not get to take you as a guest on our next road trip in our Airstream, but I will howl at the moon for you when we ride through the mountains with the wind in our hair. You will be missed terribly but loved infinitely. I hope you are at peace and that one day we will laugh together again.

Love you, Natalie xo

Natalie Schumaker - July 07, 2020 at 04:38 PM