Cousin Vic, I will never forget how you and my brother Randy made me laugh until I cried. You both could really sing, dance and light up our lives. You will be missed always.

“ I'll never forget the times Victor came over to my mom and dad's home while they were away to practice our "Putting on the Ritz" dance number we did at bowling on Sunday. He had my friend Marie in stitches and in awe of our combined dancing abilities.

I will also remember another dancing related memory. This time we were at Olympic Lanes and Lounge on 27th street with my Auntie Barb. Victor and I were dancing a lot.

Auntie Barb went and talked with a table of 3 women and it seems these women were under the impression that Victor and I were husband and wife (this happened a lot). Boy did Vic and I have a laugh with that one.

Vic and I also danced a lot at relatives weddings, anniversary parties, etc. I will miss his sauve dance moves, his beautiful smile, his gregarious personality and his kind heart.
