“ Ellen and I were best friends during our grade school years at St. Barbara's. Mrs. Maigatter was like a "second mom" to me then. I will always remember picking and eating plums off the plum tree in the Maigatter back yard. And I will always be grateful to Mrs. Maigatter because she introduced me to both peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and chocolate chip cookie dough. As I look at her picture, I find it hard to believe how familiar her face is to me . . . and I get a warm feeling from just seeing it.

My sincere condolences on to all the family, and especially to Susan and Carol.

“ When I saw the obituary for Viola Maigatter, it reminded me of "Mrs. Maigatter" (spelled Maigetter in her obituary), my kindergarten and first grade teacher in Wells (Escanaba), MI. Those were the days when one teacher not only taught a room full of 20-30 students, but also taught two different grade levels. I remember and loved all my teachers, with Mrs. Maigatter setting the trend.

In reading the memories shared in Betty's obituary, it is obvious she came from a very loving family that included Viola. You have my condolences for the loss of a wonderful relative. You are so fortunate to have had her for such a long time.
