“ My deepest condolences to Vivien's daughters, Theresa and the entire Emanuele family. It is said that you never forget the friends that you grew up with and that saying holds very true today. Vivien, Carolyne, Juanita and Gina, were an important part of my youth and some of my and my sister Charon's closest friends. The time we spent together at St. Rita's, hanging out on Humboldt St, Jackson St or Holton St (acting crazy) are memories that will always hold a special place in my heart. The laughs never stopped even when there were some tears. Although the years have passed, seeing them and catching up in mintues were as if we were never apart. I feel blessed to have seen Vivien at Festa 2019 and take that great picture of her with Gina. May you rest in peace with Jorge at your side and may your family always remember your love for them.

“ I find it difficult to be writing this. I have loved my aunt Vivian my entire life. I have always been drawn to her. I'm sure it's because she was just a loving person. She would never ask anything from anyone. She was more of a giver than a taker and never always had it easy or everything that she needed . She always made time for her family. She was a very proud mother and grandmother. So much to be proud of! Her girls are amazing ! I will never forget her. She took of piece of my heart with her. This is tough and I am not really sure when the reality of this will kick in. 😞 I wasn't ready for this . May god keep her in his loving arms. I'm glad to know she is with my mother whom she loved dearly . Endless Love to the family.

( I am glad I text you video's of him) I am going to miss our phone calls . You always ended our conversation with “ I love you”. My heart breaks for you Christine.
