“ I met Walter in 1974. He sold me a few of my very first investments. He also was the broker for one of my largest investments. Over the years he put together complicated trade deals for me, and once lined up and completed a 6 building exchange. When Walter was handling the deal, I knew every t would be crossed and i dotted. There was never a missed step, the deals all went together like a well oiled machine. He taught me a lot about multi family real estate. Over the years we became friends and often shared a bottle of wine over real estate stories. I told him shortly before he passed that if he got to heaven before me, he should leave the door unlocked, he promised me he would.

Very nice memory. I was the first female broker he hired at his office on Capitol Drive. I put a lot of deals together during my time there.

“ Walter was a dear friend and colleague. I have been a tenant on Bishops Way for 23 years and shared more than a building. Walter gave me insights and advice that I will continue to utilize for many years to come. He is missed. Attorney Kathleen Hume
