“ to Kieth and the entire Steinke family...Kieth, its been a long time, probly 35+ years since I seen you going back to our " raising hell days " but you were one of the " 4 banditos ".....You,Me, Bobby O, and Rut. Warren never let us down by always coming thru and getting us primo tickets (1st 8 rows ) for all our favorite concerts in the 70's ( Heart,Fleetwood Mac, Supertramp, Jetro Tull,REO Speedwagon,Bob Dylan,Pink Floyd,and on and on) I continued to seen him and different places I worked after he retired, I worked in different tire and auto places that he would transfer and deliver needed items, maybe he was working for a auto parts place or like a Quicksilver, put he was always smiling and always fun to talk to. He was a good man, and Im sure he will be dearly missed from all so many people that cared for him.....have you figured out who this is yet????????? .....HERBIE !!!!!!! Take care of yourself and heard you have a wonderful family. talked to John Rozga, when I seen Warrens name in the O.B.'s last Saturday, called him to ask if it was the same Warren that had a sons named Kieth, Jeff and Michael. Kieth being a WILD one, and Jeff too for that matter, dont know if Michael followed in those wild footsteps, your other sibling me and Bobby O didnt recall. but me ,Rozga, Bobby O and Rut all went to Thomas More together, Bobby, I was best man at his wedding,and we still stay in touch quit often.....If you ever want to shoot the shit over a couple brews, be cool to see, you, Bobby told me to say hi and give you his condolences,he said to try to get you to meet up for old-time-shot -the-shit session.....again, my deepst condolences to you and your family....your old friend..Michael 'Herbie' Herbst phone or text 414-207-0005
