“ Wayne was of of my most cherished friends as a youth in Cudahy. Through time distance or whatever excuse, we never stayed as close as promised. Yet, nothing, even this horrible event, will take away the memories we created. May God bless Wayne and the whole family up and down the tree.

“ To my dad who suffered for so long. Despite this, you ensured your sons knew the importance of God at the center of life, of family, and the refined character that is fashioned from hard work. Your guidance, patience, and love have made me the man I am today.
Thank you Dad.
